

Craig Jonathan Hansen

Dear Jon,

Thank you for all your help with legal counsel through my recent divorce. While it was a difficult time, it helped to know that I was receiving advise in my best interest. It isn't easy to think about the future when experiencing a present you didn't anticipate. The counsel I received from you was sound, fit the level of aggression I wanted to use in my divorce and I appreciated the options you put on the table should I wish to pursue them.

I also wanted to thank you for making yourself so available to questions and concerns I had throughout and following the divorce. Having you produce the paperwork in order for the court filing was a huge relief, knowing that I would not have to keep going back to correct mistakes it would have been easy to make, had I put together and filed the paperwork on my own. It was great to have one less stress to worry about.

Thank you! You made all the difference in making a messy process run smoothly.

Sincerely,
