Here's what you have and what you need to check:

1. Case Confidential Information Form (CIF)
Check names, dates, etc., to make sure they are correct and there are no typos.
This is a sealed form: it gets filed with the court but no one can view it except the parties and the court.
2. Summons
Check the names for spelling. The rest of this is boilerplate.
3. Petition for Dissolution/Legal Separation
Check the names for spelling and make sure the dates are correct.
4. Acceptance of Service (Resp. signs)
Check the name for spelling. The rest of this is boilerplate.
5. Joinder (Resp. signs)
Check the name for spelling. The rest of this is boilerplate.
6. Parenting Plan (If it applies)
This controls who sees the kids when. Typically it does NOT deal with who pays for what; the child support order does that. But go through this carefully and make sure this is what you can live with.
7. Order of Child Support with worksheets (If it applies)
This controls who pays what. Most is boilerplate language and we have little control over it. The important things to look at are:
 - Are names, birthdates, addresses, correct?
 - Is the transfer payment what you both agree to?
 - Is the division of expenses in paragraphs 3.15 and 3.19 what you both agree to?
 - Are the tax exemption allocation in para 3.17 what you both agree to?

Generally, if you both have agreed on a child support transfer payment, the incomes in the child support worksheet do not have to be perfect. They are there to support the transfer payment that you agreed to. If there is a fight, then the incomes are important and a court will decide what is most accurate; but agreed incomes, in an uncontested divorce, do not bind the court in any future child support modification.

8. Findings of Fact (Both sign)
This is mostly boilerplate, but also lists the assets and debts.
9. Decree (Both sign)
This document is the most important: this actually IS the divorce. This formally divides the assets and debts; so you want to be sure that it lists the assets and debts, and states what happens to them (Who pays them; when the house or car get refinanced or sold, etc.) So go through this carefully.
10. Declaration in Lieu of Formal Proof (King County Only).
Check to make sure I have names, dates, etc. spelled correctly.

6 The children named in this parenting plan are scheduled to reside the majority of the responsibilities under this parenting plan.

10 3.13 Other

- 11 a. Either parent may vary the parenting plan by written or email agreement. Parents expect 12 and agree that the schedule with each parent will vary depending on the children's 13 needs and their schedule. Parents agree to revisit the parenting plan in three years'
14 time. As of the date this Plan is signed, the parents are still living in the same house.
This Plan will commence with the mother having the first week, the week after one of the parties moves out of the house they are living in now. However, both parents also agree that if one of the parents provides daycare, or watches the child by agreement during the other parent's time, this will not serve as a basis for trying to modify the parenting plan.
- 15 b. Either parent shall refrain from interfering with the other parent's decisions as to how and 16 where the children will spend time while in the other parent's care. In addition, both 17 parents shall refrain from obstructing or otherwise interfering with the other's relationship with both children, including without limitation plans for vacations and holidays.
- 18 c. Each parent desires to remain responsible and active in the growth and development of 19 the children consistent with the best interests of the children. The parents shall make 20 mutual efforts to maintain open, ongoing communication concerning the development, needs and interests of the children and discuss together the major decisions which have to be made about or for the children.
- 21 d. Each parent shall have equal and independent authority to confer with school, day care, 22 and other programs with regard to the children's progress, and each shall have free access to school, daycare, and other records. Each parent shall have authority to give 23 parental consent or permission, as may be required, concerning school, daycare, or other programs for the children while the children are in his or her care.
- 24 e. Each parent shall exert every reasonable effort to maintain free access and unhampered contact and communication between the children and the other parent, and promote the affections of affection, love, and respect between the children and the other parent.

1 Neither parent shall make derogatory comments about the other parent or allow anyone
2 else to do the same in the children's presence. Neither parent shall allow or encourage 3 the children to make derogatory comments about the other parent.

- 4 f. Each parent shall be empowered to obtain emergency health care for the children
5 without the consent of the other parent. Each parent is to notify the other parent as soon
6 as reasonably possible of any illness requiring medical attention or of any emergency 7 involving the children.
- 8 g. Each parent shall have equal and independent authority to arrange routine and 9 emergency medical and dental services for the children while the children are in his or 10 her care and residence.

12 3.14 Summary of RCW 26.09.430 - .480, Regarding Relocation of a Child

13 This is a summary only. For the full text, please see RCW 26.09.430 through 26.09.480.

14 If the person with whom the child resides a majority of the time plans to move, that person shall give notice to every person entitled to court ordered time with the child.

15 If the move is outside the child's school district, the relocating person must give notice by personal service or by mail requiring a return receipt. This notice must be at least 60 days before the intended move. If the relocating person could not have known about the move in time to give 60 days' notice, that person must give notice within 5 days after learning of the move. The notice must contain the information required in RCW 26.09.440. See also form DRPSCU 07.0500, (Notice of Intended Relocation of A Child).

19 If the move is within the same school district, the relocating person must provide actual notice by any reasonable means. A person entitled to time with the child may not object to the move but may ask for modification under RCW 26.09.260.

21 Notice may be delayed for 21 days if the relocating person is entering a domestic violence shelter or is moving to avoid a clear, immediate and unreasonable risk to health and safety.

23 If information is protected under a court order or the address confidentiality program, it may be withheld from the notice.

24 A relocating person may ask the court to waive any notice requirements that may put the health and safety of a person or a child at risk.

2 Failure to give the required notice may be grounds for sanctions, including contempt.

3 If no objection is filed within 30 days after service of the notice of intended
4 relocation, the relocation will be permitted and the proposed revised residential
5 schedule may be confirmed.

6 A person entitled to time with a child under a court order can file an objection to the 7 child's relocation whether or not he or she received proper notice.

8 An objection may be filed by using the mandatory pattern form WPF DRPSCU 07.0700,
9 (Objection to Relocation/Petition for Modification of Custody Decree/Parenting
10 Plan/Residential Schedule). The objection must be served on all persons entitled to time 11 with the child.

12 The relocating person shall not move the child during the time for objection unless: (a)
13 the delayed notice provisions apply; or (b) a court order allows the move.

14 If the objecting person schedules a hearing for a date within 15 days of timely service of 15 the objection, the relocating person shall not move the child before the hearing unless 16 there is a clear, immediate and unreasonable risk to the health or safety of a person or a 17 child.

18 IV. Decision Making

19 4.1 Day-to-Day Decisions

20 Each parent shall make decisions regarding the day-to-day care and control of each 21 child while the children are residing with that parent. Regardless of the allocation of 22 decision making in this parenting plan, either parent may make emergency decisions
23 affecting the health or safety of the children.

24 4.2 Major Decisions

Major decisions regarding each child shall be made as follows:

11 violence or child abuse are present, then the court finds that the victim requested

13 supporting person present during the mediation proceedings, or

14 The cost of this process shall be allocated between the parties as follows:

15 50% petitioner 50% respondent.

 3 provide coverage and which parent must contribute a sum certain. Fill in 4 B and C below.

The court makes the following findings:

3 liable for any covered health care costs for which that parent receives direct
4 payment from an insurer.

5 A parent who is required under this order to provide health insurance coverage
6 shall provide proof that such coverage is available or not available within 20 days
7 of the entry of this order to the other parent or the Washington State Support
8 Registry if the parent has been notified or ordered to make payments to the 9 Washington State Support Registry.

10 If proof that health insurance coverage is available or not available is not 11 provided within 20 days, the parent seeking enforcement or the Department of 12 Social and Health Services may seek direct enforcement of the coverage through 13 the other parent's employer or union without further notice to the other parent as 14 provided under Chapter 26.18 RCW.

15 3.18.2 Change of Circumstances and Enforcement

16 A parent required to provide health insurance coverage must notify both the Division of 17 Child Support and the other parent when coverage terminates.

19 support shall be provided, the parents' medical support obligations will be enforced as 20 provided in

21 RCW 26.18.170. If a parent does not provide proof of accessible coverage for the 22 child(ren) through private insurance, a parent may be required to satisfy his or her
23 medical support obligation by doing one of the following, listed in order of priority:

25 or union at a cost not to exceed 25% of that parent's basic support obligation;

31 if the child(ren) receives state-financed medical coverage through DSHS under 32 RCW 74.09 for which there is an assignment.

33 A parent seeking to enforce the obligation to provide health insurance coverage may 34 apply for support enforcement services from the Division of Child Support; file a motion

- 21 (a) to provide any type or form of benefit option not otherwise provided under the 22 terms of the Plan;
- 23 (b) to require the Plan to provide increased benefits determined on the basis of 24 actuarial value; or
- 25 (c) to require the payment of any benefits to the Alternate Payee which are required to be paid to another alternate payee under another order which was previously

Administrator of such information as the Plan Administrator may reasonably require from such parties to make the necessary calculation of the benefit amounts contained herein.

14. Tax Treatment of Distributions Made Under this Order: For purposes of Sections 402(a)(1) and 72 of the Internal Revenue Code, any Alternate Payee who is the spouse or former spouse of the Participant shall be treated as the distributee of any distribution or 15 The Plan Administrator is hereby authorized to make any clarification or modification to this 16 Order that the Plan Administrator deems necessary or appropriate to implement this Order,
