

Jon,

Thank you so much for everything you have done for our family. You always have been very responsive and extremely helpful. I also appreciate your candidness, calling things as they are and removing the emotions from the equation.

This is a check for all the brief calls and emails you've responded to. You hadn't mentioned you moved but hope you like your new office. I hope as well all is well with the family. Thanks again for your commitment to your clients and trustworthiness.

Best regards,

Sarge
