

Jon,

Thank you for riding this roller coaster with me. It has been a long three years letting me lean on you. I think about the first time we met: I recall I was in significant pain and had to use that ugly darn cane. There have been so many conflicting emotions, thoughts, and frustrations then and throughout, this ordeal. No sane person wants to be involved in an accident of any kind and certainly do not want for another to be injured or for ones self to suffer an injury. I never wanted to be in such a situation and I definitely never wanted to have to pursue another legal case again in my life. However, it happened.

I am so grateful that you accepted my case and that you accepted me as a client to represent. I cannot think of a better fit. You allowed me to keep living my life and move through this long recovery without having to deal with the evil Weicks in the world, chuckle. You let me help with my case to the best of my understanding and ability. You let me be who I am. You were encouragement without false hope. You were always "there" and "here" when I had a question or concern and you kept me informed without being obnoxious. I appreciate your style and the personal access you provided. You were always prompt to return calls or emails. You are always professional yet personable. Jon, I wish you continued success. I recommend you readily and happily.
Thank you very much Jon.

*Respectfully,
